

Capstone 2: Document Spec

DESKTOP

The desktop view of the Colmar Academy website features a top navigation bar with links for 'On campus', 'Online for companies', 'Sign in', and a search bar. Below the header, there's a large image of two students studying at a desk. A central call-to-action button says 'Start here'. To the right, there's a section for 'Orientation date' with a photo of a student and a 'Read more' link. Below that is a 'Our campus' section with a photo of a room and a 'Read more' link. Further down is a 'Our guest lecture' section featuring a photo of a man and a 'Read more' link. The main content area is titled 'Start learning' and includes sections for 'Software engineering', 'Computer art', 'Design', 'Data', 'Business', and 'Marketing', each with a thumbnail image and course details. At the bottom, there's a 'Thesis exhibit' section with a video player, a 'Fisma: Design and Prototype' showcase, and a 'Now and then' research study about New York. The footer contains a 'Reimagine urban' section with a photo and a 'Read more' link, along with copyright information and links for 'Terms' and 'Privacy'.

MOBILE

The mobile view of the Colmar Academy website is a vertical layout. It starts with a 'Orientation date' section with a photo and a 'Read more' link. Below it is an 'Our campus' section with a photo and a 'Read more' link. Then comes a 'Special guest lecture' section with a photo and a 'Read more' link. The next section is 'Start learning', which is a horizontal scrollable menu with icons for Software engineering, Computer art, Design, Data, Business, and Marketing. Following that is a 'Thesis exhibits' section with a video player. At the very bottom, there's a 'Now and then' section with a photo and a 'Read more' link, along with a copyright notice and links for 'Terms' and 'Privacy'.
